

Science Buddies @ Holy Cross School:

Grade 8 students took the lead in a captivating heart dissection activity, teaching and guiding their Grade 5 peers. This hands-on session not only empowered our young scientists to share their skills and knowledge but also sparked curiosity and collaboration.

It was inspiring to see our future cardiologists in action, fostering a passion for science across grade levels. A wonderful opportunity for mentorship and learning – truly the heart of our school's STEM spirit!

